Forewords

Charitable activities of Trilok Seva Samiti Sanchalit, Eva College of Ayurveda & Hospital, include medical camps, Suvarnabinduprashan, and various other services in collaboration with the local health department (Government Ayurvedic Dispensary and Saurashtra Sarvoday Trust, Upleta).

The aim of these services is to ensure the mental, physical, and social well-being of all populations relying on the facility for any kind of health issue.

Thousands of people have availed themselves of the free medical facilities indiscriminately provided by Triloka Seva Samiti Sanchalit, Eva College of Ayurved, and Dhruv Ayurvedic Hospital by means of free medical camps. Recently, a camp was arranged for mega surgical, Ayurvedic (Agni Karma, Shastra Karma, Cupping Therapy, and Marma Chikitsa) treatment, and free medicines in collaboration with the local health department (Government Ayurved Dispensary, Saurashtra Sarvodaya Trust, Upleta).

Saurashtra Sarvodaya Trust has been organizing camps since 2005, and every year around 2000 patients were successfully treated with Ayurvedic medicines and various therapies. This year, Saurashtra Sarvodaya Trust, Triloka Seva Samiti Sanchalit, and Eva College of Ayurveda and Hospital jointly organised the camp. Our main focus is the immunisation of society against diseases, for which we are working on both proactive and reactive grounds.

Mrs.Naliniben solanki Camp organizer & trustee of Saurashtra sarvoday trust, officially opened the camp.Dr. Manoj Runghe, Principal, Eva College of Ayurveda, Supedi, along with Vice Principal Dr.Nashir Parmar and Trustees of the Saurashtra Sarvodaya Trust.
